Manual abstract:

Stack Facts - You can only start a stack with a 1 (of any design) or a RATUKI card. @@Any design will do, but you can't put the same number on top. RATUKI cards count as any number you like. Remember, your aim is to be the player that plays a 5 card (or a RATUKI card), on the top, so you can win the stack. RATUKI! TM Super-important Stack Fact oh no! The number of players = the maximum number of center stacks. D = Draw pile J = Junk pile S = Score pile Player 1 D Keep your piles separate. Mixed up piles = a mixed up game. J Player 2 D Center Stacks S S D J Player 3 J S Setup 1. Find a pen and paper (not supplied) to keep score with. 2.

Separate the cards into single-color decks and choose one color each. 3. Shuffle your deck and put it down in front of you, facedown. This is your draw deck. 4.

Take 3 cards from your draw deck and hold them in your hand. 5. @@RATUKI! How to Play! 1. Someone shouts "RATUKI!" Let the chaos begin! 2.

@@@IMPORTANT: You can use only ONE HAND to lay cards.

It doesn't matter which, but once you've picked, stick to it! 3. You can add cards from your hand to any pile if you have a card that's one number higher or lower than the top card of that pile. 4. @@5. @@6. @@7. Keep playing cards, adding to your hand and winning stacks. @@Count the cards in your score pile. Each card is worth one point. 2.

@@This is your score for this round. 3. @@The first player to score 100 points or more wins. @@@@The player with the most points at the end of that round is the winner! Storage To stop your cards from sliding in the box: push up the tabs in the cardboard tray, store your cards in 3 piles, then fold over the tab tops. © 2010 Hasbro. All Rights Reserved.
