Com/go/5100aiosupport PROBLEM: I cannot print anything, the printer is locked-out after printing the calibration sheet. SOLUTION: 1. Are both the Black and Color lights solid red? Did this correct your problem? YES - no further troubleshooting is necessary NO - proceed to steps 5 through 7. 5. Reset power to printer by turning it OFF. Wait ten seconds and turn it back ON. Did this correct your problem? SOLUTION: When necessary, you can force a calibration sheet to print by following these steps: 1. Make sure the photo paper tray is loaded and pushed in. When the print comes out, place it at the front-right corner of the scanner glass, and press START. PROBLEM: I've put the calibration sheet on the scanner glass and nothing happened.

SOLUTION: One of two scenarios may have occurred. Either the calibration sheet is not positioned correctly (arrow not positioned in right corner) on the scanner glass or the calibration sheet is skewed (not aligned squarely) on the scanner. Did this correct your problem? Calibration will work successfully on both plain white paper and photo paper. PROBLEM: I cannot print to my desired paper type. SOLUTION: Check to see if the photo tray is pushed in.

You can do this by checking if the green photo tray light is illuminated. if it is , all prints will be produced from this tray. If you want to print from the main tray, pull out the photo tray by lifting the lid and sliding the paper tray toward you. Gently pull the paper out of the rollers. @@@Gently push the door forward until it snaps into place.
