@@For this reason, we recommend that prior to attempting to programme the remote control, you try it out by means of one of the methods described in this user manual. @@@@@@2 On/Standby or Standby only, depending on the equipment being used. 7 Activation and use of menus (display, deletion, choice, confirmation). Before you start programming, you must find the code of the set to be controlled. @@The indicator lamp flashes to signal that this time is almost up, and then goes off). 3. While the indicator is lit, enter the first digit of the 3-digit code proposed for the set to be controlled (example: 036 for Thomson). 4. @@ 5. Should the set not switch off, repeat step 2.

Then type in the next 3-digit code. Try to switch off the set by pressing key B once. Repeat this procedure by trying out each of the 3-digit codes. @@@@@@@@@@@@The indicator lamp flashes to signal that this time is almost up, and then goes off). @@ 5.

@@ 6. Should the set not switch off, press key B repeatedly, until the set switches off. @@@@@@@@@@@@ 3. @@ 4. @@ 5. @@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@With this method, the remote control scrolls through the full code list by sending an IR signal to the set to be controlled remotely. @@The indicator lamp flashes to signal that this time is almost up, and then goes off). After a few seconds, the remote control begins to scroll through the whole code list included in the library (at a rate of roughly 1 code per second). Press the PROGp key once again to slow down the test speed (1 code every 3 seconds). As soon as the set changes channels, you must press OK to save the code and stop the remote control scrolling through the list. @@As soon as the set responds again, press OK to save the code. @@To leave the menus, press key EXIT once. @@@@ 2. Press the S key again briefly, the indicator light blinks once. 3.

@@ 4. The number which made the indicator lamp blink is the first of the three figures comprising your code, write it down. Repeat to obtain the other two codes. 5. Repeat step 3 to find out the two other numbers of the code. 6. When the third figure is found, the indicator lamp goes out. Turn on the set and press, for example, 2 to change channels. Try other remote control keys to find out the range of functions you can control. If you think that not all of the keys are active, try the programming Method B or C.

When you have retrieved the code of your set, jot it down so that you can use it whenever needed.
