Description

If you need a stylish value-added music player for all occasions, look no further than Transcend's MP330. About the same size and weight as a disposable lighter, the MP330 is a versatile combination digital music player / portable storage device that boasts an impressive collection of useful functions.

Featuring a built-in USB connector, the MP330 operates just like a USB flash drive, making file transfer easier than ever. Its versatile feature set includes a line-in music recorder, an A-B repeat mode, and variable playback speeds that can be excellent tools for reviewing important meetings, foreign language lessons, or academic lectures. Other features include a recordable FM radio, voice recorder and a full-screen clock.

With its smooth rounded design, Transcend's feature-rich MP330 digital music player makes it easy to enjoy music with superb audio playback quality while on the go, plus it lets you store data just like a USB flash drive.
